The Second Sunday of Lent

“So, they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what rising from the dead meant.”

In the Gospel, a voice from the cloud says, “This is my beloved Son, Listen to him.”

When I pray, I talk to God. Do I also listen?

“Most High, glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart and give me true faith.”

Weekly Reflections...

Please Don't Judge Me!

There is a fallacy within our church that anyone whose spiritual life involves praying novenas, the Rosary, the Chapel of Divine Mercy, and likes to attend Mass in Latin must have a conservative worldview. Yes, it is true that most people who tend to use these spiritual tools have a conservative outlook. There are of a minority of people who use these spiritual tools who embrace Vatican II and the liturgical reforms from this Council.

This misconception comes from what we call in psychology Overgeneralization. Overgeneralization is a cognitive distortion, it is a way of thinking where you apply one experience to all experiences, including those in the future. In this example because the majority of people who are conservative pray this way, then all who pray this way are conservative. This false belief can flow to the sin of judging. When we judge we then place a value on to these spiritual tools. We tend to look at the way we pray as the best way and the right way to pray. When we do that, we also put limitation on God. In short, we are saying one cannot be touched by God's loving Spirit through these methods of prayer.

Some might be wondering why we are offering Eucharistic Adoration during this Lenten season. Some might think that Adoration is "out of date" or does not have a place in a progressive parish. Being what I call a Vatican II baby, I was always fascinated by my grandparents' spiritual practices. One being Adoration.

Eucharistic Adoration is a centuries-old practice rooted in our belief that Jesus Christ is truly and completely present in the Eucharist. We have to remember that our theological understanding of the Eucharist has developed over time.

Adoration was established out of a spiritual need of the laity. Eucharistic Adoration developed in the 13th century because people felt personally unworthy to receive the Sacrament. Some waited to receive on their death bed. For a period of time only the clergy would receive the Sacrament. Adoration was called "ocular communion". This spiritual practice was used as an instructional method to teach the doctrine of the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It also gave the people a way of experiencing the real presence of Christ.

As a result of Vatican II there is more lay participation at Mass and people are encouraged to receive the Eucharist regularly. Therefore, Adoration is no longer needed for the purpose it was created for, the experience of the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. This does not mean that this method of prayer cannot be life giving and spiritually nourishing.

So why are we offering Eucharistic Adoration? Lent is a time to work on our relationship with God. Spending alone time with a person we are developing an intimate relationship with is extremely important, therefore spending time with God is also essential. We know through the life of Jesus that he went by himself to a desert place to pray to his heavenly father. We, too, are encouraged to spend quiet time with God. One way is through praying in front of the Eucharist. During online Adoration you will experience being in front of the real presence of God. There will be Scripture Reading, meditative silence, a reading from the writing of St. Francis or St. Clare, prayers of the faithful and closing prayer.

Just like how people have different learning styles so also are people's prayer styles. The hardest thing for me to learn was just because I am not being spiritually fed by a certain prayer style does not mean others are not being fed. As an ordained priest I need to be open to participating in methods that don't meet my spiritual need, for the spiritual growth of others. Therefore, I need to stop judging others spiritual practices. If we say that all are welcome here, I need to meet people where they are and how they pray.
