Weekly Reflections...

As you may be familiar this weekend is the Fifth Sunday of ordinary time.

But I cannot help but think of my Mother on this day. We are also ready for the Super Bowl. She said that the Super Bowl was her favorite football game, "the last one". We are celebrating two teams, Kansas City and Tampa Bay that have completed the regular and post season winning their respectful division games. I was pulling for both the Buffalo Bills and the Cleveland Browns (that may have been their downfall). My thinking was: give it to the team that has not won a super bowl. We celebrate the persistent effort and self-sacrifices of time, talent and team work that brought both teams to this point. Those athletes demonstrated a commitment to the task. We are challenged as well to make the same effort in our prayer and fraternal life as baptized Christians so we can elevate the completing of our pilgrimage to God.

Second to that is the parish Polar Plunge. It was started in 2005, for you Eagles fans, they played the New England Patriots but the Pats won. I am told we will have a 2021 polar plunge at a later date, so stay tuned.

This weekend we also remember the anniversary of 26 Japanese laymen, Jesuit and Franciscan Martyrs including St Peter Baptist and St. Paul Miki in 1597. They were canonized in 1627. St Paul Miki a Japanese noble man spoke these powerful words, "Since this (Christian) Way teaches me to forgive my enemies I willingly forgive the King and all those who have desired my death. I pray that they will obtain the desire of Christian Baptism." I do not know about you but to follow those words of faith, I have to try a little harder and do a better job of following Jesus.
