The O Antiphons of Advent have been cherished by Christians for centuries. One of the antiphons is chanted each evening at prayer from December 17th to 23rd. Each includes a title Christians give to Jesus. The titles are taken from the poetry of the scriptures.

December 17th – O Wisdom! Isaiah 11:2-3, 28-29

Name some ways our world is divided. Where does our world look for wisdom and insight? We pray that God will bring peaceful order to creation.

December 18th – O Lord of Might! Isaiah 11:4-5

We call Jesus the Lord our God. Through Jesus we know what God is like. In Jesus we see God face to face.

December 19th – O Flower of Jesse's Root! Isaiah 1:1

Jesse lived in Bethlehem 1000 years before Jesus. He was the father of King David and grandfather of King Solomon. Joseph and Mary were their descendants. Jesse was like a root. Jesus is like a flower growing from this root.

December 20th – O Key of David! Isaiah 9:6

Jesus is like a key. He locks the door that leads to death. He unlocks for us the gate of Heaven.

December 21st – O Dayspring! Isaiah 9:1

Jesus is the Light of the World. We are called to let our light shine before others.

December 22nd – O Keystone! Isaiah 9:5

The Keystone keeps other stones from falling down. Jesus is called the Keystone because he unites all people of the world as sisters and brothers.

December 23rd – O Emmanuel! Isaiah 7:14

Emmanuel means "God is with us". In Jesus, God is with us in our human lives.

Please join the children of the Parish on December 11th at 2:00 pm in the Brant Beach Church as we celebrate the birth of Christ with our Christmas Pageant.

Peace,

Judy Clayton

Blessing the Infant Jesus at Home

Readers and one person are chosen to hold the Infant Jesus. Soft Christmas hymn playing as family and friends gather around the Christmas tree and the Nativity stable.

Reader 1 begins:

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Reader 2:

As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Christ we pause to bless the infant Jesus that we will place in our manger. The practice of erecting such mangers was begun by St. Francis as a means to send forth the message of Christmas. When we look upon the figure of the Infant Jesus, the Christmas Gospel comes alive and we are moved to rejoice in the mystery of the Incarnation of the Son of God.

The Infant Jesus will now be held up as Reader 3 reads the Blessing.

God of every nation and people,
From the very beginning of creation
You have made manifest your love;
When our need for a Savior was great you sent your Son to be born of the Virgin Mary.
To our lives He brings joy and peace, justice, mercy, and love.
Lord, bless all who look upon this infant;
May it remind us of the humble birth of Jesus, and raise up our thoughts to Him, who is God-with-us and Savior of all, and who lives and reigns forever and ever. Amen.

The Infant Jesus is now placed in the manger.

Reader 1: Let us pray the Hail Mary together.

Reader 2: Let us now exchange a Sign of Peace.

You may now choose to sing a Christmas Carol as the Blessing of the Infant Jesus is concluded

Silent Night
Away in a Manger
O Little Town of Bethlehem
The First Noel
It Came Upon a Midnight Clear
A Blessed and Merry Christmas to all.

Gospel Inspirations:

“Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?”

On our faith journey having doubts is to be expected and can even be an opportunity for growth - a strengthening of our faith.

As the third candle is lit, things become brighter. The route to deep faith may go through deep doubt. God is here. The promise is fulfilled in Jesus.

Franciscan Spiritual Center Presents:

Spiritual Direction

(The third chair is for the Holy Spirit, the real Director).

How is God active in your life? Where is God in times of crisis? Is your relationship with God what you'd like it to be? Questions like these are the focus of spiritual direction or "soul care". The director or companion is someone trained to listen and respond to spiritual movements in the life of others.

One on one meetings with you can be in person, by video call or phone call. Like to know more? Contact one of the certified spiritual directors in the parish:

Sacred Silence

In the "General Instruction of the Roman Missal", we find that the Church calls us to Sacred Silence in our liturgical celebrations. The silence enables us to set aside the noise and distraction so that we may meet God. It is in the quiet that we are able to hear and allow the word of God to enter our hearts.

There are five times in the Mass when we are called to silence; the Penitential Act, when the priest says, "Let us pray", after each scripture reading, after the homily, and after receiving communion.

When we arrive at Mass, we prepare ourselves when we hear the quiet music begin and we let the noise and distraction fade as the sacred silence envelops us.

May God's peace be with you.
