A Letter From The Pastor...

Happy Sunday Good People!

It has been a bit over 4 months since I assumed the ministry of pastor from Fr. Jim. Because we do live in this "Age of Covid" the transition on September 14, 2020 was quiet and uneventful, literally. My only regret is I feel we have really not had the opportunity to meet one another. One way I would like to bridge that gap is to occasionally bring back the "Letter from the Pastor." It is not the same as our in-person festivities that are so much a part of our Catholic and Franciscan heritage, but it is, at least, one way that we can connect.

Many people have been asking, "How is it going?" "How do you like your new job?" My reply is the same, "It's not that the parish runs itself but in many ways the community is so engaged that it almost feels like it does." We are a community of wonderful and committed people who hear the Word of God and then proclaim it by their acts of kindness, works of charity, compassionate listening, caring for those who mourn, and in so many other ways, privately and or publicly, attending to the needs of our brothers and sisters. In many, many ways, the roots of the Gospel are deep here on Long Beach Island. A new pastor's dream!

One of those great supports and consistencies of our parish is our Director of Liturgy, JoAnne Reeder. Believe it not, on January 1, 2021 she marked her 40th Anniversary of working for St. Francis Parish. She must have started when she was 5! I would like to publicly thank JoAnne for her dedication to our liturgical worship and her faithfulness to using her gifts and talents to proclaim the Word to us. May God continue to bless her as her ministry has blessed us for so many years.

Another grace of this wonderful community is you and your incredibly generous response to my letter in November 2020. I wrote then that our financial situation was tenuous. We had ended our last fiscal year with a great deficit, and it looked like we were heading into an even worse situation for this fiscal year. It is humbling to share with you that as of Tuesday, January 19, we have collected $313,925. To our parishioners and all the friends of St. Francis Parish who donated to the Christmas 2020 Giving Fund I thank you for your response to our need. We have published on Facebook and our webpage the most up to date listing of the "Perfect Light Society."

Some may wonder if that effected our Christmas collection. It did, but not as much as one might have expected. Last year, we brought in $86,139. This year our Christmas collection, $132 less than last year, was $86,007. That is in addition to the Christmas 2020 Giving Fund! One more great example of the goodness of this community.

It does go without saying, however, that we are living in a strange and uncertain time. We have all learned that we cannot take the past for granted or expect to move forward in the same way we have before. Unfortunately, I don't think we are settled on what the "new normal" will be but we do have some ideas of what we need to do.

The Pastoral Staff has been working very hard to figure out how we can continue to be available to serve the community. Zoom has become a new household word and it has also become a new parish word.

Michele Beck, our Director of Music, and her two sons, Andrew and Jonathan, have been working very hard to bring our liturgical prayer to the internet. This has allowed not only our parishioners to connect to our common prayer it has also allowed those who have moved away to stay connected. Again, by your generosity, we will soon be installing permanent cameras, in honor of Fr. Jim Scullion, OFM, in St. Francis Church. (con't on next page)

A Letter From The Pastor... con't.

We were also able to purchase a portable camera, in honor of Pat Simmons, so we can live-stream different lectures and events that do not take place inside the church. We are confident that these upgrades will enhance the at home experience but more importantly help us all to stay connected.

The last bit of news to share with you is that a few of us have been working with two wonderful young men to create a new website for St. Francis Parish. It is our aim to create a website that is user friendly, informative, and yet another tool that can help us all be community for one another.

To answer the question, "How is it going?" I would have to say that it is going very well! You and your faithfulness have been a shining light to me and to the Pastoral Staff. In this time of darker days, both literally and figuratively, I thank you. We thank you.

May God continue to bless you and may you continue to bless St. Francis Parish, and the world.

Fraternally,
Fr. Francis Di Spigno, OFM, Pastor

Weekly Reflection

Even the devil can quote the Scripture.

That is not an exact quote from Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice, but it's close. My sophomore English teacher, Mrs. Flower, a wise woman, dropped it on me once when she thought I needed it. I never forgot. It has informed my respect for the Word of God: don't misuse it.

Preachers have to be aware of the sacredness of the words of Scripture. We should not yank them out of context just to make a point or beat down someone else; rather, we have a duty to use the holy texts to bring light to our souls, to challenge us to a higher standard of morality and charity, to be God's holy people and to draw us into deeper intimacy with the One who loves us and blesses us with the Holy Word.

It is the same for all of us. When we read and pray the Bible, the Lord is truly present. It is he who speaks and nourishes us. Therefore, we come to the Holy Book with reverence, humility and love and even with the expectation of joy and transformation.

Pope Francis has set aside the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time as the Sunday of the Word of God. Somehow I don't think this celebration will capture the Catholic imagination as does Saint John Paul II's Divine Mercy Sunday. Too bad. Even the Monitor only gave it two inches! Still, we ourselves can pledge always to receive the Holy Word with focused attention and act on it with gratitude.

When we are able, I read the gospel to a friend who is physically handicapped. Before I can open the Bible, he takes it in his hand and closes his eyes in silent prayer. His profound reverence for the Sacred Scripture always stirs my heart to a deeper desire for the Word of God.

May Christ dwell in our hearts through faith.
John Frambes, ofm

Are you interested in becoming a volunteer As a Confidential Sexual Violence Advocate?

Advocacy is based on the principle that the individual is the best person to make decisions in their life. Once trained you will be on call to provide crisis intervention, educational information and resources to survivors of sexual violence. All potential advocates encouraged to apply.

Bilingual advocates needed.

Join our team of trained Forensic Nurses,
Advocates and Law Enforcement.

Our no cost 40-hour training will certify you to advocate for people who have experienced sexual violence. The training infuses principles of anti-oppression and multiculturalism in every step.

Advocates will gain a strong understanding of how racism, oppression, and inequality intersect with sexual violence, which will help them best serve every survivor they interact with in their role.

Did You Know??

During the months of October, November, and December, the Food Pantry typically sees an increase in the amount of families served. This year during the months of October and November, the pantry served 216, 266 and 143 families respectively.

In addition to assisting families with food, the St. Francis Human Concerns Program also holds three special projects on an annual basis; Back to School, Thanksgiving, and Gift of Warmth. This year we served 100 families for the Back to School project, 250 families for the Thanksgiving Project, and 208 families for the Gift of Warmth Project.

We want to thank everyone who donated to our projects this year. Without you, these projects would not be successful.

St. Francis Center/LBICC is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization. Donations are tax-deductible. Our federal tax ID number is 22-2003458. We have provided supportive services to the community for over 45 years and with your help we will continue to do so. Our online donations are processed by PayPal so it's fast, easy and secure. We are only able to process online donations from NJ residents only.

If you would like to recognize a donation to the Center in someone's name, donation cards are available at the front desk of the Center and at the Parish Office.

Thank you for your continued generosity!
