Weekly Reflections...

Happy Birthday! Pentecost is considered the birthday of the Church. We celebrate it 50 days after Easter, thus the name Pentecost from the Greek, pentekoste, meaning fiftieth. The Church exists because of the power of the Holy Spirit. When Jesus' mission was completed, God the Father sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost to continue the work of God the Son. Since that time the Spirit has been present to us, guiding us to spread the good news and to follow Jesus in his mission to the world. In today's Gospel, we are told that the disciples had gathered together in a locked room. Jesus appeared to them and said "Peace be with you"...he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." In the first reading from Acts, we hear that there was a strong, driving wind and tongues of fire. The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to talk in tongues so that all could understand and to testify of Jesus to the world. The two different accounts of the coming of the Spirit show that like the Father and the Son, as humans, we do not have the capacity to comprehend the workings and the power of the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit bestows gifts upon us when we receive the sacrament of Confirmation, [wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord] so that we can do the work of Christian ministry. Today's second reading from Ephesians urges us "to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received." We have all been called to use the gifts and the fortitude bestowed on us...to forgive, to love and serve one another, to spread the good news. Every day I am inspired as I see the people of our parish who have answered the call by using their diverse gifts to serve one another; visiting the sick, comforting those who mourn, teaching children in Family Faith Formation classes, serving as Eucharistic ministers, lectors, ushers, choir members and musicians, altar servers, food bank workers, praying for the addicted, the marginalized. The list of these acts of care and kindness does not end here. The needs are many and if you have thought you would like to join one of our ministries, perhaps this is the time to answer that call. I can be reached at (609) 494-8611, ext. 164. I'll be happy to talk with you and answer any questions you might have.

I would like to recognize someone in our parish who has served as an usher and usher coordinator. His name is Richie Casler. He has faithfully served his Church and his brothers and sisters for many years. Now on your retirement, the entire St. Francis family would like to say thank you Richie for your joy and tireless devotion to your ministry. May God continue to keep and bless you always.

Peace and all good,
JoAnne Reeder, Director of Worship
