A Letter From The Pastor...

Fr. Francis Di Spigno, OFM,
Pastor

Happy All Hallow's Eve [Halloween] and Happy All Saints Day!

October is over? Wow, that was fast!

I think it's becoming more obvious that the sun is setting earlier and earlier. I did like it when it was still light outside at 8 o'clock at night. But, time continues and the seasons change. On Long Beach Island we are probably more attuned to this cycle than some other communities because the shift in our population is so dramatic.

We know that last year was not a normal year in many ways. With Covid and the strong social distancing rules that were in place many people stayed on LBI throughout the winter. We responded and kept three churches open all year. This year, we were not sure what was going to happen nor what the crowds would be at our Sunday liturgies. We decided to keep St. Thomas of Villanova Church in Surf City open longer than usual to accommodate the crowds as well as to allow people the ability to be social distant as the pandemic continues. Many people asked the question, "How long would we keep the Surf City Church open?" I could not give them a good answer. Today I can.

JoAnne Reeder, our Director of Liturgy, with the great help of our ushers, coordinated a count of all those who attended the Masses on the weekends of October 16/17 and October 23/24. That information was helpful for us to see the seasonal decline in Mass attendance. It appears that the population cycle of the Island community is closer to the norm rather than the exception of 2020. Therefore, this weekend will be the last weekend with the two extra Masses in Surf City. Beginning next weekend, November 6/7, Mass will only be celebrated in St. Francis Church, Brant Beach.

The schedule will remain as it is now until the First Sunday of Advent: Saturday, 5 PM Vigil Mass, and Sunday, 7:15 AM, 8:30 AM, 10:00 AM, and 11:30 AM. On November 28th, the 7:15 AM Mass will be dropped as it has in years past.

As the month of October ends we know that November 1st and 2nd brings us the wonderful celebrations of the Solemnity of All Saints and The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls), respectively. We will celebrate both at our 9:00 AM Mass on Monday and Tuesday. Because All Saints Day falls on a Monday it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year. Therefore, there will be no Vigil Mass on Octobr 31st. These two celebrations have always been an integral part of bringing our Liturgical Year to a close. As the year comes to an end we remember all those who died with the certainty that the Light of Christ will shine again in the Incarnation that we celebrate on Christmas Day and the fullness of the Light of the World on Easter Sunday.

We also celebrate a Special Memorial Mass for those who have died within this past year. Because Tuesday, November 2nd, is Election Day, this Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday, November 3rd at 5 PM in St. Francis Church, Brant Beach.

Everyone is welcome. If someone you loved died during this past year, please join us. You are most welcome. If you would like to support someone who lost a loved one this past year, please come. We invite you to bring a picture of your loved one to this Mass. During the offertory I will invite you to bring up your picture and place it in our Remembrance Memorial. The photographs will remain in the church during the month of November as we continue to remember and pray for all those who have gone before us.

The seasons change. The cycle continues. From death comes life and from within the darkness, our light will dawn.

Weekly Reflections...

Sr. Patricia McNiff, OSF, Pastoral Associate

Winter's Coming Home

"Summer's gone, the leaves are falling down, the mellow sun is cooler, days are short, and nights are longer...it's certain that winter's coming home."

These words from the songs of the Monks of Weston Priory remind us that seasons are changing again. Spring seems to be the traditional season to rid our homes and closets of unnecessary clutter. However, fall might challenge us to do some decluttering too. Mother Nature herself is busy at this time doing her own "letting go". The leaf that was once so beautiful, its color transformed a branch that belonged to a tree. The tree and the branch that were home for the leaf are now barren. Life has changed but not ended. The leaf can speak to us of our own need to let go. Now might be the time to look into the inner closet of our heart and see what we need to let go. Would we experience greater freedom if we were able to surrender certain attitudes, harmful ways of thinking? Perhaps we need to relinquish resentments, bitterness or hostility. What is it that crowds out our joy, smothers our love, and takes away our peace? What kind of action would facilitate a winter decluttering of our hearts? This kind of cleaning involves risk and demands inner transformation. Here is where the gift of God's grace is freely given to us. As we reflect on the presence of God in our lives, we are able to cherish the part of life that feels nourishing, satisfying, rewarding. It is like the plenitude of autumn's harvest. We also see what we need to let go, what can no longer be a part of our living in the presence of God. Here we experience the fecundity of God's grace and our lives are transformed into a deeper relationship with God and others. Here we experience the delight of letting go and become who we were truly called to be at our Baptism...daughters and sons of a loving God...the hands and feet and the heart of the risen Christ

"Lord, we are the people who long to see your face."

Blessings,
Sr. Pat

GOSPEL CHALLENGE:

Counseling Service by appointment (609) 494-1554

Services are currently being offered via telephone or various online platforms. We have openings for new clients at this time. Please call (609) 494-1554.

October is National Domestic Violence Month.

With the ongoing Covid-19 Pandemic, we are also hearing the title "The Shadow Pandemic" as it refers to the rise in intimate-partner violence in correlation to lockdowns and rising tension. While this is one of many ongoing concerns in our society as well as our direct community, it is important that we acknowledge and use this time to spread awareness and bring resources to anyone who may be in need of support.

At St. Francis Counseling Service, we serve all victims of crime through grant-funded individual counseling services. Not a victim of crime? We also offer services on an affordable, sliding-fee scale. We are happy to speak with you regarding services we provide or offer recommendations for more suitable services in our area. We are here to help!

You can reach us at (609) 494-1554 during the hours of Monday 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM, Tuesday through Thursday 9:00 AM - 9:00 PM, and Friday 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM. Our 24 hour hotline is available by calling (609) 494-1090.
