The Fifth Sunday of Lent

*“And when I am lifted up from the earth,
I will draw everyone to myself.”
He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.*

In the first reading God declares through Jeremiah, “I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.”

This lent have you turned to God for forgiveness?

“Most High, glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart and give me sense and knowledge.”

St. Francis of Assisi, “The Prayer Before the Crucifix.” 40

Weekly Reflections...

Many of us are deeply concerned that younger generations have "Lost their Faith". They don't go to church or believe as we do. Or so it seems.

A very long time ago I went to visit a very wise and holy man because I was concerned about the faith life of my children. During a long conversation he told me that when I was training my children in matters of faith I was looking for results in the distant future. While at first this seemed harsh and depressing, in the context of our conversation I began to understand what he meant. Deep faith is learned through living, through the experience of loving and being loved, rather than through words spoken by another. This Sunday's readings reminded me of that life lesson.

In revealing a new covenant through Jeremiah God tells us that, "I will place my law within them and write it on their hearts...No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the Lord. All from the least to greatest shall know me says the Lord."

God has given us the seed of faith, "written on our hearts". All of us!

What then are we as loving parents, grandparents, friends to do with this great gift - The law of love written on our hearts! It seems to me that we must first of all give up the illusion that we can better communicate with words what God has written. We must allow our illusions of earned wisdom to die so that we are free to access the inner wisdom which is hidden within.

Perhaps this is what Jesus invites us to do in today's Gospel when he says, "Unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies it remains just a grain of wheat, but if it dies, it produces much fruit." He is speaking of His own coming death. Is He, at the same time, inviting us to allow God to be God in our lives by dying to the idea of earned wisdom? Are we being invited to follow St. Francis in preaching the Gospel always, using words if we must?

Changes in Our Liturgy on Palm Sunday

During the ongoing pandemic, our parish follows the directives issued by the Diocese of Trenton in order to safeguard the health of all those who attend religious services. The dispensation from Sunday/Holy Day obligation remains in effect till further notice. We will continue to social distance and require masks for all who enter the churches. Churches are cleaned between each Mass, and if you have a fever, we ask that you please do not attend Mass in person. Changes have been made to our Passion [Palm] Sunday services and are as follows:

- There will be no “Procession” and “Solemn Entrance” into the church. We will be using the “Third Form”; the “Simple Entrance” at all Masses.
- Palms will not be distributed before or during the Mass. They will be in containers in the sanctuary where they can be seen. At the end of Mass, the presider will bless the palms and they will be taken by palm distributors to the front, hall, and side doors of the church where they will be given to people as they leave church.
- The directives state that hymnals still are not allowed in the pews. The Passion of the Lord will be read as usual by lectors and the presider in the sanctuary. Last year we were not able to gather in church for our Palm Sunday services. In spite of continued precautions, it is with great joy that we are able to gather this year.

Easter Flowers and Decorations Memorial Fund Drive

St. Francis Counseling Service Sexual Abuse and Assault Prevention Program

raised awareness in schools, youth programs and other community events, reaching over 4,500 people in Ocean County in 2020, even in the midst of the pandemic. The program presents media literacy and consent related topics to youths throughout the county and provides information about counseling services and awareness to residents of all ages through interactive and informative presentations.

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month and St. Francis Counseling Service encourages you to get involved with the variety of events (both virtual and in person!) that will be held. Follow us on Facebook (OCNJ.Prevention) and Instagram (OCNJ_Prevention) or call/email Danielle Dunne, prevention coordinator (609-494-1554/ddunne@stfrancislbi.org) for more information about the program and upcoming events!

Sightseeing Trips & Cruises

A special note from Nancy Schott, owner of Home Town Travel: The light at the end of the tunnel is, in fact, finally getting brighter. The world is beginning to open her arms as we prepare to again see the wonders she has to offer. With more people getting vaccinated travel is again becoming a reality. I would like to thank all the parishioners of St. Francis for their past support and look forward to assisting you with any travel plans. Look for our presentations on Iceland and Oberammergau for 2022.
